

San Francisco, CA. – Following Judge Marilyn Patel’s decision in U.S. District Court, Northern District of California, Reginald Steer of Akin Gump, counsel to the DVD Copy Control Association (DVD CCA), issued the following statement:

“The DVD-CCA is grateful for Judge Patel’s thorough review and thoughtful decision in this matter. The association, which represents the interests of the personal computer, consumer electronics and content industries as well as DVD consumers, is committed to enabling high quality entertainment to be available for use at home and elsewhere. The ability to make that entertainment available depends upon a set of guidelines upon which all participants in these industries can rely.”

###

For more information contact:

*Greg Larsen
916 491 4094 (x223) – office
916 718 4590 – mobile*